Campout Refund Policy (rev. Aug 2010)

If you commit to attend a campout, the Federation makes a commitment to the camp based on your intent to attend. If you commit and do not attend, you are not guaranteed a refund. The Federation's ability to issue a refund is subject to the following:

1. If the minimum number of campers required by the camp is met and the Federation is not subject to any penalties for attendance below initial estimates, a full refund will be issued. If any penalties are assessed, refunds will be issued on a pro-rated based on the amount of penalties relative to the number and amount of refunds.
2. If the minimum number of campers is not met, members of tribes with 50% or fewer campers attending<sup>(1)</sup> will not receive a refund.
3. If the minimum number of campers is not met, members of tribes with greater than 50% of campers attending<sup>(1)</sup> may receive a refund to the extent monies collected exceed the minimum required attendance.
4. Note that refunds will only be issued to members that have completed the Federation's annual Member Registration Form and paid the appropriate amount. If a member requesting a refund has not paid the annual Member Registration fee, the Registration fee will be deducted prior to any refund being issued.
5. If the Federation is subject to financial penalties from camps, or subject to make payments to camps for failure to reach the minimum contractual attendance numbers or attendance promised by the Federation or it's agents, the Federation Wampum Bearer retains sole discretion to deny a refund to any refund claimant for any reason whatsoever.

<sup>(1)</sup> Based on the committed count provided by the tribal chief
